Robin Hall Nursery

Dear Parent/ Carers,

As some of you may know, we were looking into the possibility of expanding our nursery to include provision for babies. Unfortunately, this project has been put on hold due to more pressing Trust priorities. Therefore, the opening of a baby room will not start in September 2024.

I understand that this news may come as a disappointment to you, but please be assured that I will continue to look at opening a baby room in the future. I will keep you informed of any developments on the project and provide you with an update.

In the meantime, I would like to remind you of what we currently offer at Robin Hall Nursery.
